Revision courses provide course notes, study text, exam practice kit, progress tests and mock exams to submit, out of hours tutor study support and pass assurance (same course taken FREE at any location until you pass, T&Cs apply).

ACCA exam regulations

The ACCA Qualification consists of 3 modules: Knowledge module (papers F1-F3), Skills module (papers F4-F9) and Professional module (Essentials papers P1-P3 and Options papers P4-P7). AAT qualified students are exempt from exam papers F1-F3.

- Papers F1, F2, F3 & F4 are available as Computer Based Exams on demand throughout the year. Papers F5 to P7 are available as Paper Based Exams (sat at fixed exam sittings, four times a year in March, June, September and December). The pass mark for all exams is 50%.
- The timing of Paper Based Exams exams is 3 hours + 15 minutes' reading and planning time. For paper-based exams commencing September 2016 onwards, candidates may now use the 15 minutes of reading and planning time however they choose and may start writing in their answer booklet during this time.
- Students are allowed to take a maximum of 4 exams during each examination session.
- Exam papers at each module can be taken in any order and in any combination.
- You can attempt exams at different modules in the same exam sitting. However you must enter for all outstanding papers within your current module if you wish to do this.
- From September 2016 the ACCA started a phased introduction for new session Computer Based Exams (session CBEs) for the F5, F6 UK, F7, F8 and F9 exams. Session CBEs will run alongside paper based exams during timetabled exam weeks and will initially be available within selected markets. Please visit the ACCA website for more details or contact a member of the Acorn team.
